

Sian Smith

Born in the Welsh mining village of Abertillery Sian qualified as a Registered General Nurse in 1980 and continued her nursing career until September 2007 when she changed careers joining CVQO as one of their Regional Operation Managers. She was first introduced to the “Cadet Movement” in June 2002 when she assisted Powys ACF Regimental Band playing for her Majesty the Queen at the Golden Jubilee Celebrations. So impressed with the cadets Sian joined the Regimental Band as a musician/instructor and a few months later also joined a regular ACF detachment (Cwrt-Y-Gollen) an Adult Instructor. In 2004, she relocated with her husband when he was posted to London for his final few years in the Army. She commissioned as a Nursing Officer with the QARANC (V) in 2004 serving with 4 GS Medical Regiment and until recently was also serving as Company Commander with SE London ACF. She spends her spare time travelling to Wales to be with her family and enjoying her hobbies which include sailing, snorkeling, expeditions, fishing and of course playing her baritone.
